

Photo: Transwestern

IMAGE 1 OF 3

UniversalPegasus International, part of Huntington Ingalls Industries, has renewed its lease for 113,114 square feet for its corporate headquarters at 4848 Loop Central Drive.

UniversalPegasus International, part of Huntington Ingalls Industries, has renewed its lease for 113,114 square feet for its headquarters at 4848 Loop Central Drive. Transwestern's David Baker, Doug Little and Kelli Gault represented the landlord, a joint venture of Griffin Partners and Wheelock Street Capital. Lucian Bukowski of represented the tenant. UniversalPegasus provides project management, engineering and construction management services for the energy industry. Planned improvements at the Loop Central complex, such as a tenant lounge, fitness center and conference center, as well as providing a more efficient workplace, factored into the decision to renew, Little said.

-katherine.feser@chron.com - twitter.com/kfeser