PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Lee Moreland believes Griffin Partners' unique position as an owner-operator is a great advantage in the commercial real estate industry.

"It gives us an ownership perspective that's attractive to both investors and those who lease from us," he says. "By investing our own capital it shows that we believe in what we're doing."

As Senior Vice President of Asset Management, Lee's responsible for developing strategic objectives and ensuring the execution of strategy for the growing list of properties in its portfolio.

Lee has more than 20 years of experience in the commercial real estate industry. Prior to joining Griffin Partners in November 2006, he was Vice President, Asset Management for Crescent Real Estate Equities where he was responsible for the performance of the company's joint venture portfolio, consisting of over 8 million square feet of Class A office projects. Lee was also responsible for a large portfolio of office buildings throughout the Southwest as Vice President-Regional Manager for CMD Realty Investors. Lee served 6 years with American General as Director of Commercial Real Estate.

He graduated from the University of Texas with Bachelor of Business Administration degrees in finance and real estate. In his free time, Lee enjoys hunting and fishing and spending time with his wife and their two daughters.
