

iCORE GLOBAL ADDS HEAVY HITTERS TO GRIFFIN PARTNERS

UNITING LOCAL COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE EXPERTISE WITH GLOBAL EXECUTION CAPABILITIES UNDER ONE BRAND WITH A SINGLE POINT OF QUALITY CONTROL

Standing in front of Griffin Partners’ Saturn One office building under construction at their mixed-use development, Nassau Bay Town Square, Samantha Muetting, iCORE Global’s CEO, congratulates Griffin Partners’ Co-Chairman Drew Lewis and President Edward Griffin on the formation of their strategic partnership for Texas.

iCORE Global provides Griffin Partners with an expanded service team through regional partner offices and comprehensive Corporate Real Estate service capabilities. Griffin Partners will provide iCORE Global development, investment property, construction, and project management services. Working together, iCORE and Griffin Partners will provide an unsurpassed client experience.

Samantha adds, “Drew Lewis also adds a Heavy Hitter aspect to the iCORE team.” As a member of the iCORE Board of Directors, Lewis will join Muetting to develop client assignments and assist the local partner offices utilizing his vast 38 years of commercial real estate and business owner experience.

From representing tenants, building buildings, owning property, investing his own capital, and 1,000’s of hands-on client assignments, Lewis brings a level of service unmatched in the industry. He has managed and developed his own local and national sales force teams, setting a superior standard of integrity and innovation in the realm of client services.
